Letter from the Co-Pastors

How can we raise generous children—children who can appreciate the blessings they have received and are not always asking for more? The task is not easy. According to a Kaiser Family Foundation study, today's school-age children spend more than seven hours a day using cell phones, video games, televisions, computers, and other media. All of these deliver consumer-driven messages that urge our children to have the latest and greatest in order to be happy. Nearly fifty hours a week—compared to one or two hours a week hearing the church's message—the odds are against us!

But there are some things we can do. Here are some suggestions from Rev. Kathryn Hauelsen, a parent and pastor who works in the area of money and spirituality:

- Talk with children about why you support the church and other organizations and why you help others.
- Go shopping together for items to donate to children, new mothers, people in nursing homes, or people with special needs.
- When you go grocery shopping, pick up a few items for the Cluster food pantry and bring them to church.
- Serve at Community Meals on Thursday night, work at the Cluster, or find some other way to help those in need. It can make us all appreciate more what we have.
- Pick out together a ministry or charity that your family will support and include your children in the decision about who to give something to and how much to give.
- At Christmas or on a birthday, in addition to the regular gifts, give them a "share-check." Fill out the amount and sign the check, but let the recipient select the non-profit cause to receive the money.
- Teach your children how to write thank you notes. E-mail and text-messaging notes count.
- Give your children an allowance and teach and model the 10-10-80 concept: share a tenth, save a tenth, and spend the rest wisely.
- Model generosity—what we do around our children matters far more than what we say.

How about you—who taught you about faith and money and about being generous? Do you have any suggestions to pass on? If so, we can share them in future issues of the Celtic Cross. But growing into generous people is not just for children. May we all grow so that we too can worship with "glad and generous hearts" like the early church described in Acts 2. And may we learn how generosity and gratitude can help us to be "content with whatever we have." (Phil. 4:11). This is who we are meant to be—because we are the church!

See you Sunday,
Carter and Kerry

Music Notes

November is such a busy month for the Chancel Choir. All Saints' Sunday is the 6th and the choir will sing "Was I Faithful?" an anthem that will touch your heart. That evening, you will see the choir in a different light as they yet again entertain with song at the Stewardship dinner. On November 13th our anthem is "What Feast Will You Bring?" It was specifically written for stewardship dedication and will showcase Leanne Campbell on flute. The following week is Thanksgiving Sunday. Gary James will play trumpet along with the choir on the majestic anthem, "All Hail the Power." November 27th is the first Sunday in Advent. That morning the Handbell choir will play the prelude, the introit and 3 members will accompany the Chancel Choir on its anthem, "Bless the Lord, My Soul."

I would like to thank Tim Detwiler for his inspiring offertory (on alto sax) in October, as well as Gary James and Dick Clark for their contributions to the Reformation service. And thanks to our wonderful choirs for their commitment and talent and to Scott Sample and Deb Voytko for all the extra hours of practice and musical magic.

—Diane Land, Music Director

Service for Wholeness, Wednesday, November 30 at 7:30 p.m.

Come join us for our twice-a-year service of worship and prayer for wholeness and healing in our world, in our communities, in our relationships, and in our mind, body and spirits. If you, or someone you care about, is in need of healing, or if you simply want to pray for our hurting world, come and join us for this important and meaningful spiritual practice. Kathi Lurie will bear witness to wholeness

Upcoming Events—We are the Church!

Congregational Dinner and Program, Sunday, November 6, 5:30-7:30 p.m.

Please join your church family for an evening of food, fun, and fellowship. We gather for a delicious dinner at 5:30 in Fellowship Hall, brought to us by the culinary talents of the Bathurst family. Following dinner, expect to be dazzled by feats of Olympic prowess; be-bop along to one of Motown's (less) famous show stopping groups; tap your toes in amazement as versatile veterans of song and dance trip softly the light fantastic (or at least trip). See who we, the church, are as we celebrate life together—the lighthearted and heartwarming—as well as the life giving. Don't miss out on what is always a special night in the life of "we the church". Please sign up on the church bulletin board, through the weekly bulletin inserts, or by calling the church office. A free will offering will be received.

Dedication Sunday, November 13

On Sunday, November 13, we dedicate our tithes, offerings, gifts and commitments for 2012 in worship. Please prayerfully consider how God blesses each and every day and how we, as the community of faith known as First Presbyterian Church in Pottstown, multiply those blessings to be blessings to others. Pray and give thanks to God for all the ministries and missions this church supports—the powerful witness of lives in worship, the glorious music that swells forth from our sanctuary, the Word offered to us like bread that fills and waters that quench our thirst by caring and committed pastors. Pray and give thanks for our ability to offer space for programs, for dedicated teachers, for missions, and outreach to our neighbors near and far. Pray and revel in the joy that comes from knowing that, by God's grace, we are the church. Pray and know that we can, and we do, offer so much to one another and to our brothers and sisters in Christ. Pray and ask God how you, as a part of His church, can dedicate yourself, your time, your talent and your financial resources to His great glory in the coming year. And when, on Sunday morning, the 13th, you turn in your pledge card with the commitments for time, talent and money, look around at the shining and beautiful faces of those alongside you and lift up one more prayer of thanksgiving, because we stand in an eternal gathering of the saints who preceded us and will follow us proclaiming "I am the church, You are the church, We are the church together!"

Share the Joy of the Season by becoming an Advent Angel

Sign up (on a bulletin insert or through the church office) to be an Advent Angel. You will be secretly assigned another church member/family. Beginning November 27th, you can secretly drop off something at the "Advent Angel table" for that person/family such as cards, baked goods, ornaments, etc. In turn, you will have your own Advent Angel. Can you keep a secret for 4 weeks?

Hanging of the Greens, Sunday November 27, 6:30 p.m.

Begin Advent with a gathering for all ages. We will enjoy dessert at 6:30 p.m., decorate the church, and sing carols. While our church is being decorated for Christmas, the youngsters will make a craft for the season. We will end with a carol-sing in the sanctuary. Bring holiday cookies and nibbles to share. If you have greens and holly, please bring them as well. Please sign up on the bulletin insert, on the church bulletin board or by calling the church office.

Christian Education Opportunities

(You can pick up a cup of coffee before class in Fellowship Hall)

- Forum (Community Room) “The First Thousand Years of the Church”
Join us for an award-winning video that describes the first thousand years of the church interspersed with two weeks of Dr. Gary Jenkins of Eastern University (Nov. 6 and 20), who will speak about the Orthodox branch of the church. Dr. Gary W. Jenkins is the Van Gorden professor in History at Eastern, and is also chair of the history department.
- Faith and Relationships Class (Library) Teachers: Sharon Trevoy and Rob Wade.
Topic: “Caring for God’s Creation”
How is global climate change actually affecting our land, our water, our air? And what should we be doing about it? By “we”, we do not mean our government, the EPA, or scientists, or any other group; rather what we can we personally do to honor God’s creation instead of contributing to its destruction? Our study will provide workable solutions for “greening” our homes, our church, and our community.
- Men’s Sunday Mornings (Pastor’s Conference Room) “Jesus - A Gifted Storyteller”
Teacher: Bernarr Rhoades
- Women’s Sunday Mornings (Mary Ann Yost Room—110)
Teacher: Amy Shutt. Topic: “Entering Christ’s Prayer”
We will use selected readings from Luke’s Gospel to focus on Christ’s life of prayer and His oneness with the Father. Discover an image of Christ, not born into glory or crucified in bloodied defeat, but rather more like us, developing a union with God through constant prayer, contemplation and service.

Branches of the Vine - Making A Difference

Alternative Gift Market

Join us after church on Sunday, November 13 for our annual Alternative Gift Market. All proceeds from the soup, lunch, and bake sale go to support missions. Here is a lineup of offerings for the day:

- Order and pick up your quarts of soup.
- Enjoy a lunch of soup and bread, or hot dogs and sauerkraut.
- Shop at our homemade bake table.
- Purchase an Equal Exchange gift basket (supplies our coffee and other products).
- Support the Heifer Project , Habitat for Humanity, the Outreach Foundation (mosquito nets).
- Purchase our colorful recycled gift bags to use instead of wrapping paper during the holiday season.

Watch for order forms in the November bulletins to order your soup or to volunteer to bake an item for the bake table. Deadline for soup orders is November 6. Come join us for a delicious meal and help benefit some great causes this holiday season as we remember the true reason for the season.

Calling all Bakers!!! Can you help us make our baked goods table bigger and better this year by providing a cake, pie, cookies, bread, etc. ? See the information in the bulletin insert or contact the church office (cookies and brownies should be divided to two or three per package; if items contain nuts, please label that).

New Clothes for Kids for Christmas

We can make it possible for a child in need in Pottstown to have new clothes and/or cozy pajamas at Christmas. Due to increasing need we have a choice this year of providing either new clothing or pajamas for the children. Cards will be available in the church foyer during November. Select a card and purchase a new outfit or pajamas in the proper size. Bring these gifts, unwrapped and in a Christmas gift bag, to the church by December 4. These gifts will be distributed to the waiting children by the Pottstown Cluster.

Sing the Faith

Upon the recommendation of the staff and Worship Committee, the Session has voted to replace the Lift Up Your Hearts hymnals with a new songbook, Sing the Faith. The new songbook is a newer and improved version of Lift Up Your Hearts, with all of the favorites from Lift Up Your Hearts, and many more singable contemporary songs from the world church. It also includes several of the songs we sing from inserts in the bulletin through a special license we purchase. Help us purchase these songbooks with a $15 donation. You can give the book to the church in honor or memory of someone and a bookplate showing your gift and dedication will appear in the songbook. Look for the bulletin insert or contact the church office to make your gift. What a great Christmas gift for someone!

Focus on the Library—Highlighting Authors and Books

My Favorite Things

I especially enjoy reading Amish fiction books and there are many to choose from in our church library. If you have never been to Lancaster County Amish areas I would highly recommend a visit. Take a drive into the back farm county to visit Amish quilt shops and craft stores on Amish farms or just take a buggy ride, it is simple and easy fun the whole family will enjoy.

Levi's Will by W. Dale Cramer

This book is a heartwarming story of an Amish man seeking to build a bridge between three generations. The main character, Will, is raised in an Old Order Amish community and at the age of 19 leaves his community resulting in a complete shunning by his family and community. This book does an excellent job in taking the reader through the life of Will from the age of nineteen to sixty. The complicated relationship between a father and son is explored. Levi's Will is loosely based on the author's father's life and has a strong message of forgiveness and redemption.

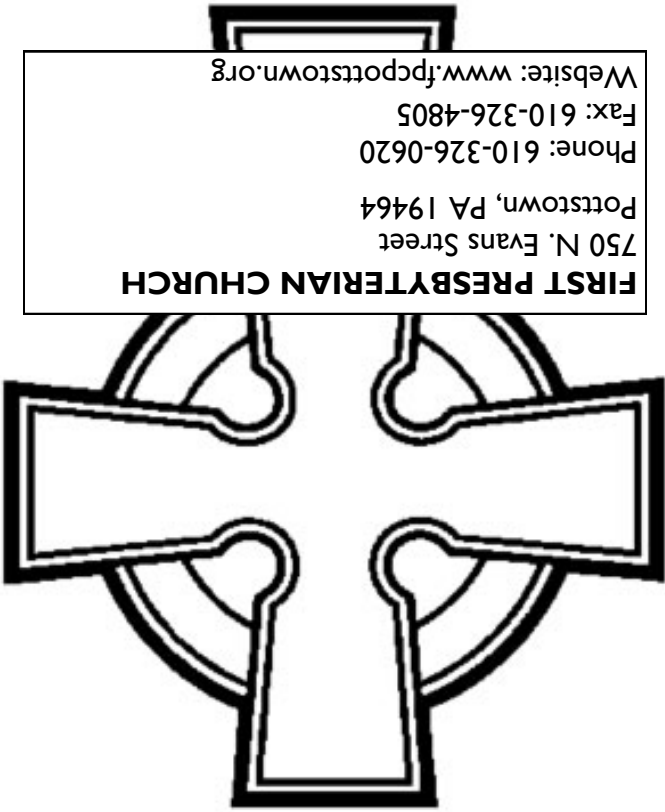

Daughters of Lancaster County by Wanda E. Brunstetter

This is a trilogy about an Amish family trying to overcome a devastating heartache. This inspirational story takes place in an Amish community in Lancaster County. The story is told through the eyes of Naomi Fisher whose mother has recently died. She is left with the responsibility of caring for the house and all her siblings. While watching her youngest brother, Zach, he is kidnapped out of the front yard. This story shows how faith, hope, and forgiveness can finally be brought back into this Amish family's lives.
